

Third Grade Newsletter for
June 1, 2010

Your child will need to bring in two paper bags to put school things in next week. We will be having a party with our reading buddies next week also. Please send $1.00 to school by this Thursday, so we can purchase the treats.

Father's breakfast is this Friday. If you would like to help, please let the office know.

This is the last week to return assignments that are not finished. Please return them by this Friday.

The story culminates with Saul of Tarsus, now renamed "Paul," humbly receiving instruction from God's servant Ananias. Paul was obediently baptized into Christ and emerged to become the greatest preacher the Christian world has ever known!

God used all of Paul's qualities to His glory because Paul made that all-important "turnaround choice" of giving his will, therefore his life, over to God. Once that happened, God gave life back to Paul: the life God intended for him in the first place. The life Paul lived, he lived by faith in the Son of God.

If you have any questions, feel free to e-mail me at sdennis@foundationcampus.org. I will contact you back as soon as possible. I usually read my

Our memory verse for the week:

"I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me" (Galatians 2:20).

e-mail in the evening.

This Week Events:

- News time this week on Friday. It will be our last news time.
- Spelling test this Wednesday.
- June 4 Father's Breakfast. Any mother may come and help serve from 7 a.m. until 8 a.m. –

Future Events

- June 10 is award day at 9:30 a.m.
- June 11 school picnic. Please let the school know if you would like to volunteer to help.

Sincerely,