

Third Grade Newsletter for
June 7, 2010

Your child will need to bring in two paper bags to put school things in this week. We will be having a party with our reading buddies this week also. Have a great summer break!

If you have any questions, feel free to e-mail me at sdennis@foundationcampus.org. I will contact you back as soon as possible. I usually read my e-mail in the evening.

This week our class will have a Bible Fair remembering what we studied, and all of the memory verses for the year.

Our memory verse for the week:

Review of all the fourth quarter memory verses.

This Week Events:

- June 10 is the award assembly at 9:30 a.m.
- June 11 school picnic. Please let the school know if you would like to volunteer to help.
- June 11 is the last day of school for the year.

Sincerely,
