

Promotion Ceremony Info.

March 15, 2010

Dear Parents:

It's hard me to believe that it is almost the end of third quarter, and with it come thoughts of the end of the school year. I wanted to give you some information concerning the promotion ceremony (Wednesday, June 9th), since I know some of the girls are already talking about going shopping for their dresses during Spring Break. First of all, I want to say that this is not a super formal occasion. We want the students to look nice, but at the same time, this is not high school prom! The following information will give you an idea of what your student needs to wear. Boys must wear dress pants, a button down dress shirt, and a nice tie. If they have a suit jacket, they can wear it, but are not required to. Girls must wear a nice dress that is within dress code, which means it needs to be the appropriate length, have sleeves, and have a modest neckline. In previous years we have had problems with girls showing up out of dress code, which has resulted in the following policy. The ladies need to bring their dresses in to be approved before graduation (by the end of May). Please don't cut the tags off and keep the receipt for the dress until it has been approved! I know this policy may sound harsh, but it will prevent a lot of embarrassment in the long run. One other note on the subject, last year quite a few of the girls wore a little sweater over their dress. That is acceptable as long as the sweater stays on the whole entire time. Let me know if you have any questions about what your student should wear.
